A Constantinople correspondent states that the Prince Rouss, the German, and Count Corti the Italian Ambassadors, have informed the Porte that if it permits the British fleet to come to Constantinople Germany and Italy will also demand permission for their flicts to pass through the Dardanelles.

A correspondent at Busharest says a new complication seems to have arisen. I'me Roumanians talk of declining to submit to an armistice upless it is separately arranged with them. It is thought thy have possibly been instigated by the Russian military party.

Advices from Turkey show that the works of Adrianople are only partially armed, and unfitted to resist an attack. La Constantinople it is believed possible that Adrianople may be carried by a coup de main. The fortifications of Constantinople are consequently being look. ed to as a last resource, although they seem to be in even a worse condition. Everything points to the complete confusion and dismay of the Turks.

CHRIST CHURCH. - Instead of a sermon at Christ Church, yesterday morning, the r c'or, the Rev. William M. Dame, gave a sketch of the progress of the parish during the two years since Le took charge of it.

He referred first to the good work done by his honored predecesser, the Rev. Dr. McKim, and to the various societies and other agetees for good, which he had left organ'z'd in the congregation. They were all such as be, Mr. Dame, cordially approved, and such as he would, it necessary, have striven to inaugurate. They had been modified and added to only as new occasions had demanded. The work of the rec'or besides that in connection with Christ Church proper, includes a monthly Sun day service at the Episcopal High School, and the supervision of Meade Chapel, now used exclusively for colored people. Here a colored candidate for orders holds lay service every Sunday morning. In the atternoon there is a Sunday School, with 14 teachers and 167 scholars, and Friday evening a devotional meeting. The first Sunday afternoon in every month the Holy Communion is administered. In the week there is at the chapel a regular parish school including 58 scholars, in charge of a paid teacher. In it stated religious services and instruction, as well as secular teaching. are had. The Sunday School of Christ Church includes about 200 scholars and 20 teachers. Besides the Sunday School, the Mother's Mission, Dorcas Society, Woman's Missionary Society, Sewing Societies and Visiting Committees unite to advance the work of religion and benevolence, and have all done a good work. In the past two years the amount contributed by the congregation to sacred uses is about $6,000. The debt of the congregation has been reduced from $1,500 to $130. There have been 78 baptisms, 37 funerals, 9 marriages, 322 sermons and addresses, 500 services, 2,500 visits paid, 29 confirmations and 55 celebrations of the Ho'y Communion. In spite of numerous re mova's the net it crease in the number of commuscants is 28, the present number being 339. Numerous improvements about the church building and lot have been effected. especially the new fence on Washington street. New walks have been laid and many trees planted in the church yard, which will, when the spring opens, present a greatly improved appearance. Our readers generally will coho the wish that this venerable church may long prosper in the good work it is doing in the community, and that in the future, as in the past, its worthy pastor may find abundant encourage-
